

©Tobi Kahn

2019 CONNEY CONFERENCE ON JEWISH ARTS

CONVERGING MOVEMENTS
AT THE 92ND STREET Y
MARCH 31 - APRIL 3

ANNOUNCING:

The Conney Conference on Jewish Arts/92nd. St, Y
Archival Research Fellowships

CALL FOR PROPOSALS:

As part of the 2019 Conney Conference on Jewish Arts at the 92Y, we are proud to offer up to four fellowships to artists and scholars whose conference presentations take advantage of research in 92Y's own extensive archives.

Stipends for travel/hotel will be available to artists and scholars as needed and within reasonable limits. Staff at 92Y will address preliminary research inquiries upon request, then work closely with artists and scholars after their proposals are selected for the Conney Conference to facilitate research, both on-site and virtually.

HOW TO APPLY:

Applications can be made on-line at:
<https://conneyproject.wisc.edu/2019-conney-proposals/>

Please include:

A proposal of no more than 500 words and a 150 word bio

Presentation proposals should specify how research in 92Y archives will benefit scholarship, as well as a timeline for conducting said research in the months leading up to the Conney Conference. Stipends for travel/hotel will be available to artists and scholars as needed and within reasonable limits. Staff at 92Y will address preliminary research inquiries upon request, then work closely with artists and scholars after their proposals are selected for the Conference to facilitate research, both on-site and virtually.

Contact info for the 92Y archives is
Bernard Schwartz: bschwartz@92y.org

GEORGE L. MOSSE / LAURENCE A. WEINSTEIN
Center for Jewish Studies
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

92Y